

KASER PROMOTED

Glen Kaser, Deputy Commander of Operations for the 144th FIW, has been promoted to Colonel. Colonel Kaser is a 747 pilot for Pan Am Airlines.

GINSBURG RETIRES

Colonel Brian Ginsburg, Commander of the 144th USAF Clinic, has retired with over 21 years service in the California Air National Guard. A Fresno native, Colonel Ginsburg graduated from Fresno State University, and earned his medical degree from the University of Southern California.

ADAMS NEW CLINIC COMMANDER

Colonel Michael Adams has assumed command of the 144th USAF Clinic.

A native Californian, Dr. Adams earned a BA in Geography from Fresno State University, before receiving his medical degree from Washington University.

He was commissioned in the Air Force in 1955, serving as both physician and pilot during his career. His flight experience includes the B-26, F-86, F-100, T-33, and F-4.

Col. Adams joined the 144th Family in 1971.

EDUCATION, CONT

covers the same basic material as the NCO Academy and prepares E-4's and E-5's for greater responsibility.

For more details, contact MSgt. Tim Decker or 2Lt. Dennis Sarkisian in the Personnel Utilization Section of CBPO at BD 2333.

HAWKNEST 83

PHOTO/TSGT WEYMOUTH

Canadian Lt. Col. Larry Lott presents Col. Gregory Frazier with a plaque for 'being the best of the best at HAWKNEST 83,' a joint Canadian/U.S. air sovereignty exercise. 194th FIS participants included (l to r): Capt. Gore, 1st LT. Yelton, Capt. MacKay, Lt. Col. Benton, and from CAM Squadron, SSgt. Terry Richards.

WESTBROOK COMPLETES F-106 TRAINING

2Lt. Tom Westbrook has returned to Base following six months of F-106 flight training at Tyndall AFB, Florida. Earlier this year, Lt. Westbrook took top honors in his undergraduate pilot training course at Reese AFB, Texas.

Westbrook is a six-year veteran of the Fresno Air Guard.

PHOTO/TSGT WEYMOUTH